Toronto, July 24th-July 28th

Children's Savings Accounts: An Asset Building Tool to Promote Reconciliation and Level the Asset Building Playing Field

For this workshop, Ms. Christy Finsel, an enrolled tribal member of the Osage Nation and Director of the Oklahoma Native Assets Coalition, Inc. (ONAC), will present about Native Children's Savings Account (CSAs) pilot projects that are being implemented by ONAC and the coalition's tribal and Native nonprofit partners in the State of Oklahoma, in the United States.

During this WIPCE 2017 workshop, Ms. Finsel will begin with a state of the field of Native CSAs, in the United States, share compelling research for the creation of CSAs in any community, and relay information about the customized ONAC CSA pilot projects.
